Welcoming Frederick is a one-day conference presented by The Frederick Center, FreeState Justice, the Hood College Studies on Women and Gender (SWAG) Program, and the Hood College Queer Student Union (QSU). The event is dedicated to providing families and professionals with the tools necessary to build affirming communities for LGBTQ youth and adults. Welcoming Frederick 2018 will take place at Hood College in the Whitaker Campus Center on Saturday, May 5, 2018. Hood is located at 401 Rosemont Avenue, Frederick, Maryland, 21701. Last year we brought together approximately 100 youth and professionals; this year we are seeking to a similar audience to the event.

While the costs associated with presenting an event like this remain at market rates, registration fees are kept low to accommodate the budgets of family members, teachers, nurses, HR professionals, and others who want to attend this program; students are not asked to pay any registration fee. We rely on help from affirming businesses and individuals to help us make the program a break-even activity.

Please consider being a sponsor and helping us continue to educate our allies on how to be affirming to LGBT students, patients, clients, and others who interact with professionals in education, business, medicine, mental health, city and county government, and other fields.
